

Local 272 Works at the Southern Defense Command

Superior Rigging and Local 272 (Miami, Fla.) ironworkers work at the Southern Defense Command. Over 3,123 tons of irons are being set and at the peak of construction, 51 ironworkers were employed in all aspects of the trade. Construction is being completed ahead of schedule. The ironworkers are working with the Army Corp. of Engineers, Col. Norberto Cintron, and Hansel Phelps Corp. The job is scheduled to be turned over in 2012.

