

Animal Kingdom Lodge erected by ironworkers from Local 808

ORLANDO - Over 1,100 tons of steel were used in the project featuring large amounts of rolled material.

Dixie Southern provided design assistance to overcome challenges faced in utilizing rolled and radius structural steel beams, pipe and channel to create the look of an "African Hut." The Animal Kingdom Lodge was erected by ironworkers from Local 808 (Orlando, Fla.)

